LOSES NECKLACE VALUED AT $45,000

New York Woman Misses Pearls on Return From Theater.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—When Mrs. Percy M. Chandler was returning home after an evening at the theater Saturday she discovered she had lost a pearl necklace valued at $45,000 which she had been wearing during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler with Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt and Mr. and Mrs. George de Benneville Keim, of Philadelphia, had dined at a hotel and had gone later to the theater.

When the necklace was lost Mrs. Chandler does not know. Colonel Roosevelt recollected noticing it on her neck during the dinner. Whether it became unfastened and dropped, or whether its disappearance was the work of a thief, there is no clue. Mr. Chandler has offered a large reward for its return.

NEWPORT, E. I., Oct. 13.—Naval officers stationed here, who were decorated by the British government for their services in the war, have been invited to go to Washington at the time of the visit of the Prince of Wales to the Capital. It is understood that they will receive their decorations from the prince in person.

ROUND TABLE UNLIKELY TO ACT IN STRIKE

Intervention in the steel strike is the big issue before the central committee of the National Industrial Conference today.

Definite decision will be reached on the Gompers resolution, and will be announced when the conference reconvenes tomorrow morning. No official word is forthcoming, but it is believed to be almost certain that the steering committee will decline either to investigate or to attempt an adjudication of the steel strike at this time.

Reports that Judge Gary summoned a meeting of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation in New York Saturday to consider the proposal have not been confirmed. Should action of this sort be taken it will, of course, have a decisive influence on the policy to be pursued by the central committee.

Farmers to Present Case.
The farmers intend to place their case before the conference at the earliest possible moment, according to O. E. Bradford, of Xenia, Ohio, one of the agricultural delegates in the public group. That their own labor problem is different from that of general industry is the point they will emphasize, particularly with regard to working hours. Reports are current among the farmer delegates that a national farming conference will be held in Washington later for the special consideration of the agricultural labor problem.

Regarding the steel resolution, many delegates believe the steering committee will straddle the issue by making a non-committal report, leaving the matter to be fought out on the floor.

Seems Doomed To Defeat.
Unless Judge Gary withdraws his opposition, it seems doomed to defeat there. Its passage can only be brought about by a unanimous vote of the three principal groups in the convention, representing labor, capital, and the public, the groups to decide in separate meetings. The labor division will vote for arbitration, but the employers' group will vote against it. It is feared today, on the grounds that its acceptance would mean that employers agree to treat with union officials who do not truly represent their employees.

After the steel resolution is disposed of, the other planks of the labor platform will be brought before the conference.

ENGLAND FLOODED WITH PAPER MONEY

LONDON, Oct. 13.—During the last fortnight, more than $49,000,000 in currency notes has been added to the amount already outstanding, while only $4,500,000 has been added to the amount of gold and bank notes held against them, according to the Daily Mail.

The newspaper attacks the Government for its "waste and extravagance" in thus creating more than $45,000,000 in paper money, which it says, tends to increase popular extravagance and such "gambling as is prevalent in the stock exchange." It is said that this money may lead to further wage troubles.

HARBORD TO REACH PARIS WEDNESDAY

PARIS, Oct. 13.—Maj. Gen. James G. Harbord, who was dispatched to the Near East at the head of an American commission to investigate the Armenian situation, is expected to reach Paris Wednesday, according to a message to the American peace delegation.

General Harbord, who, according to an unconfirmed rumor current in London last week, has been the object of an attempted assassination, has sailed from Constantinople, to which place he had just returned from his trip through Turkish and Russian Armenia en route to Marseilles.

BLINDNESS WINS PAROLE FOR BOY

Remorse for Crime Caused Lad to Lose Sight—President
May Pardon Him.

Blindness, resulting from hysteria brought on by the remorse for his crime and terror at incarceration, won a parole yesterday for Emory Y. Billings, a sixteen-year-old boy, convicted of an unwitting violation of the postal laws.

The lad had taken up chicken farming at his home in Dunkirk, N. Y., and attempted to broaden his business by taking mail orders. He collided with the postal laws and was given a year and a half sentence at James-town. Less than ten days after his arrival at the National Training School for Boys he was stricken with blindness. Specialists pronounce the affliction to be genuine—case of some kinds, a rare disease in medical history. Attorney General Palmer was moved by the appeal for freedom for the boy and returned the lad to his family. It is probable that a Presidential pardon will restore him to citizenship before he reaches the age of twenty-one.

SKEPTICAL ABOUT FOUNT OF YOUTH

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—"Don't let the public run away with false ideas," said Prof. Tuffier, the great authority on human grafting, whose work at the Rockefeller Institute, New York, has attracted wide-world attention, says a copyright Paris dispatch to the Philadelphia Public Ledger. He was discussing Dr. Voronoff's claim to have brought about rejuvenation in animal bodies by the introduction of intestinal glands.

"It is certainly possible to control growth by operations upon the secretory glands of the body," Prof. Tuffier continued, "but from that to restoring a condition of youth is a very long way. It is probable that such a graft as was the subject of Voronoff's lecture would act as a stimulant and restore temporary vigor as alcohol does. But the process of decay would be all the more rapid later. It is not probable that diseases taken from an ape would prove capable of being absorbed by a human being and exercising so radical an effect as to arrest the natural process of decay."
